CRISIS IN MEXICO

FRANCE ASKS U. S. TO RESCUE FRENCH COLONY—MARINES MAY BE LANDED.

Washington, Oct. 28.—The first landing of American troops in Mexico since the trouble in that country began may take place tomorrow.

Secretary of State Bryan today said that he will ask the Navy Department to rescue a colony of French miners at San Ignacio, in the State of Sonora, forty miles inland from the city of Mazatlan, the principal Pacific Coast port of Mexico.

At the close of office hours this afternoon Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt said he had not yet received the request from Secretary Bryan, but it was clear that the communication was expected. This important step was taken by Secretary Bryan on the request of the French government through Ambassador Jusserand.

It appears that the French citizens who remained in Mexico with their mining property are surrounded by revolutionists and have represented to their government that they are in danger of massacre because they refused to pay a ransom or a forced loan. This word was brought to the Mazatlan by courier and cabled to Paris, and France, not having a warship in the vicinity, has asked the United States to give an asylum to its endangered citizens.

Secretary Bryan did not indicate how he expected the Navy Department to afford protection for the French residents at San Ignacio, but the impression here is that an armed guard will be required to effect the safe conduct of the imperiled citizens to Mazatlan, should the revolutionists refuse to let them depart voluntarily.

The cruiser Maryland, with a large fighting force aboard, is stationed at Mazatlan and can put ashore at any moment a strong force of Marines and Blue Jackets. While no definite information can be obtained as to how the Navy Department will proceed to rescue the imperiled Frenchmen, it is the opinion of naval men here that a guard of 100 men with machine guns could make the forty-mile trip and effect the relief probably without trouble or bloodshed.

Secretary Bryan's request has been communicated to Mr. O'Shaughnessy, the Charge d'Affairs in Mexico City, who is to advise Huerta of the proposed action by this government.

Another and important development in the Mexican situation was made public today at the State Department. It indicates that owing to the alarm which European countries have mani-

If the supreme court sustains Secretary Harrison's decision the election law will be referred to the people at the next general election. Meanwhile, its operation will be suspended.

The federal officers have been devoting some attention to Tulsa with a result that the bootleggers are being thinned out by the jail route. It is claimed that the place is about the driest in its history.

The Shawnee News-Herald assures the News that if Ada pulls for an extension of the Asher branch of the Rock Island, Shawnee will push to beat the band. That sounds like business, for Ada never did fail to pull when it started after anything for the good of the town.

The life of a defeated candidate for the presidency of Mexico is not a specially enjoyable one. Felix Diaz found himself obliged to flee to the protecting power of Uncle Sam's guns when Huerta graciously invited him to pay him a visit at Mexico City. Diaz knew too well what an invitation like that meant.

ANOTHER RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. ## FELIX DIAZ FLEES TO WARSHIP

Vera Cruz, Oct. 28.—General Felix Diaz applied to the American consulate during the night for protection and was taken aboard the United States gunboat Wheeling.

José Santoval and Cecille Ocon, two Mexicans, and Alex Williams, an American newspaper correspondent, who had made similar application, also were taken aboard the Wheeling. Ocon was charged last May in the Mexican chamber of deputies with being "the actual murderer of Gustavo Madero."

Santoval, the other Mexican fugitive, was an attorney in Mexico City and an adherent of the late General Bernardo Reyes.

The fact that Diaz and two of his supporters were refugees on board the wheeling was not discovered by the Mexican authorities until this morning. Their flight took place after midnight, the three men taking the risk of an excursion over the roof-tops, which were guarded by armed men, into the American consulate.

It was late in the night when Diaz, Santoval, Williams and Ocon dropped over the low wall and entered the rear room of the consulate. They assured Consul Canada that their lives were in imminent danger. Canada pointed, to the waterfront, two hundred yards distant.

"There is a launch there," he said. "You had better make a run for it." The fugitives reached the launch, evading the detectives by passing over the roofs. They presented Canada's card and were conveyed to the gunboat.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work fired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

SMALL FIRE AT ROUND BALE GIN

About 6 o'clock Tuesday afternoon fire was discovered in a bale of cotton in the press of the round bale gin. The fire boys turned on the chemical tank and soon had it all out, very little damage resulting.

It is supposed that the fire originated from friction between a bolt that had worked loose and a wheel which rubbed against it.

A dastardly assassin who is still at large, at an early hour Friday afternoon, placed luscious home-made bread, cut in nice cubes and squares, spread with Mulford's. Phosphorus Paste in henhouse No 1 and passage-way in the rear, and at 6 P. M. father and mother rat and one child lay dead; at 8 P. M. big brother rat and three nephews were cold in death; at 4 A. Dear Sirs:

We have been troubled with rats after feeding them with rat biscuits, Rough on Rats, Paris Green, Australian Rat Poism and many other poisons for the last three or four years, and only finding about six dead rats in that time and catching three in a trap.

I bought some of your Phosphorus Paste through an ad. in the "Hartford Times" of the 22nd, placed therein by Goodwin Drug Co., of Hartford, and the above announcement is the result of one application. These rats were all found outside of their holes hunting water.

Royersford, Pa. Man Tells How.

At this season of year with such sudden changes, it is so easy to take cold, and almost before one is aware there is inflammation in the bronchial tubes—a hard cough and unless checked in time chronic pulmonary troubles may result.

Townsend Young of Royersford, Pa. says: "A severe bronchial trouble contracted caused me much difficulty about breathing. My chest felt clogged up and there was considerable soreness. I tried different remedies without help; but I am glad to say that Vinol cured my bronchial trouble which had lasted for three months. My breathing is all right and the soreness entirely gone from my chest."

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

ADA MEN NOT HURT IN TULSA ACCIDENT

A wire from T. O. Cullion states that neither he nor R. E. Haynes were injured when the grand stand at the dry farming congress at Tulsa collapsed Tuesday afternoon. From the list of injured published in the Tulsa World it appears that no one from this section was hurt.

Mooney! Baby To Rule the House

No Longer Do Women Fear The Greatest of All Human Blessings.

It is a joy and comfort to know that those much-talked-of pains and other distresses that are said to precede child-bearing may easily be avoided. No woman need fear the slightest discomfort if she will fortify herself with the well-known and time-honored remedy, "Mother's Friend."

This is a most grateful, penetrating, external application that at once softens and makes pliant the abdominal muscles and ligaments. They naturally expand without the slightest strain, and thus not only banish all tendency to nervous, twitching spells, but there is an entire freedom from nausea, discomfort, sleeplessness and dread that so often leave their impress upon the babe.

The occasion is therefore one of unbounded, joyful anticipation, and too much stress can not be laid upon the remarkable influence which a mother's happy, pre-natal disposition has upon the health and fortunes of the generation to come.

Mother's Friend is recommended only for the relief and comfort of expectant mothers, thousands of whom have used and recommended it. You will find it on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 130 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for a most instructive book on this greatest of all subjects, motherhood.

GRAND STAND COLLAPSES

ONE KILLED AND MANY INJURED AT TULSA WHEN GRAND STAND FALLS.

Tulsa, Ok., Oct. 29.—One man was killed and over fifty others injured when the right field bleachers collapsed at the South Main street baseball park Tuesday afternoon at 2:15 o'clock. Five hundred people, including many women and children, were buried in the wreckage, while a crowd of over 3,000 people, waiting to see the New York and Chicago baseball teams play an exhibition game, looked on breathlessly. Without a moment's warning the entire stand crumbled into thousands of pieces. Little noise was made by the collapse and it came so suddenly that not even a scream was heard. It was some minutes before the awfulness of the accident dawned upon the crowd. Several women fainted.

Company L, Ninth U. S. Infantry, of Fort Logan H. Root, Arkansas, was marching under the stand when it fell. Only one soldier was badly hurt. We was private Chester Taylor, aged 20. He was dug out of the wreckage and was the first to be sent to a hospital. He died two hours later without regaining consciousness.

Governor Lee Cruise, United States army officers, officials of the International Dry-Farming congress and many other notables witnessed the accident, as did players on both the baseball teams.

The United States Fourth Field Artillery band displayed good judgment by continuing to play in front of the main grandstand, and in this way an impending panic was prevented. There was a hasty scramble to leave the left field bleachers, but not a person left the main grandstand.

National guardsmen, police, United States troops and civilians removed pieces of timber from persons who had been pinned to the ground. Dozens of the injured were rushed to town in automobiles.

For some minutes many of the more slightly injured persons lay prostrate upon the ground, many of them covered with wounds and bleeding. Frantic mothers searched the wreckage for their children. One woman found her boy, with a bad cut on his head, and she carried him all the way to town to a doctor's office.

Word of the accident reached the business district in a few minutes and ambulances, police patrols and doctors were soon on the ground. In the meantime the emergency medical cases of the baseball teams came in handy.

In less than thirty minutes after the stand fell the police and troops, headed by Mayor Wooden and Sheriff Wm. McCullough, had stretched a line in front of the wrecked grandstand, and in this way the crowd was kept of the playing field.

Many of the men who were taken from the debris had broken limbs, while nails and splinters of wood protruded from the flesh of several of them. Some of the injured managed to walk to street cars, and their names were not learned. The official list of injured collected on the ground and later at hospitals by the World shows that over forty people were hurt.

Street taxes for 1912-13 are past due and I am now collecting same and will be glad to accept same from you.

PROTESTS OVERRULED

SECRETARY HARRISON THINKS
REFERENDUM PETITION IN ELECTION LAW IS O. K.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 29.—Adopting the doctrine he believed was expounded in decisions of the supreme court touching on initiated and referred bills, in that technical errors were not sufficient to invalidate petitions, Secretary of State Ben F. Harrison today overruled the protest to the petition referring certain sections of the new election law. The only point submitted to the secretary was whether or not the petitions should be addressed to the governor, as well as to himself. The secretary had previously overruled offers from the protestants to show fraud connected with the securing the names on the petitions.

Secretary Harrison heard argument today on both sides of the question and in overruling the protest called attention to the fact that the petitions on the mining bill, which was referred to the people and voted upon, were not addressed to the governor. No question was raised on that point to the referendum on that bill and the election has never been questioned.

In his argument in behalf of the petitioners, H. L. Fogg of El Reno cited several supreme court decisions covering the question. One was the case of the Pawhuska Oil and Gas company against the city of Pawhuska. Petitions had been circulated calling for an election to grant a franchise. The question was raised that the petitions had not been addressed nor presented to the mayor, as the chief officer of the municipality. They had been filed with the clerk. However the mayor had full and official knowledge of the filing of the petitions and called an election. The supreme court held to the effect that provisions of the law had been substantially complied with, as the proper officials had substantial knowledge of the filing of the petitions, and this was all that was required.

Haskell and McAdams, representing the protestants, served notice of appeal from the secretary's ruling and the case will go to the supreme court. Efforts will be made to have the case advanced as rapidly as possible.
